Master Seamstress II Registration Form

Advanced Patternmaking ($250)

The units in this program are each concerned with designing with full size patterns. From the basic bodice pattern, students will create a sheath dress and continue onto princess designs. Students will progress to a blouse pattern and dartless designs, then learn how to make a jacket, and coat sloper including discussion on facings, collars, lapels, sleeve, and linings. Designs can be tried and tried in fabric throughout the class time.

Tuesday mornings 9 – 12 noon (9/19 – 11/14)

No class 10/17

Serge A Wardrobe ($250)

You must have the basic serger skills mastered. It is best to take this class as a follow-up from “Sergers The Basics and More.” In this class you will create a few garments of your choice using the serger techniques taught in the previous class—workbook including decorative threads and heirloom stitching. A 4-thread or more serger is required.

Wednesday mornings 9 – 12 noon (9/20 – 11/15)

No class 10/18

Sergers – The Basics & More ($250)

This class will focus on basic and advanced stitch techniques used in garment construction. You will become knowledgeable about your own Serger and appreciative of its usefulness in replicating many ready to wear clothes. You will have the opportunity to construct a minimum of two garments and create a stitch catalogue. Serger competence is not required, although previous Serger experience is strongly advised. A 4 (or more) thread Serger is required.
